Back to School Prayer

Almighty God,

We give you our school. We give you all the teachers and staff who work here, We give you all the children who study here. We pray our school would be place of great discovery, adventure and creativity. May it be a place where we love to learn and where we learn to love, A place where every one is respected and all are deeply valued. We ask all this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Don't Look Back

It's bad enough that the Israelites were grumbling against their leaders. But they also complain to God that they were better off as slaves in Egypt. After all God did to bring them to freedom, now they want to go back to slavery. Before we judge them too harshly, we might ask ourselves if we ever act like that. For us, it might be looking back on our slavery to sin.

We would never sin if there wasn't something attractive about it. We might confess the sin and say we'll never do that again, but we often can't resist the memory of our past sins. As we hold on to the past, the temptations come back and draw us to repeat our offenses. Even though we know we are better off putting it behind us, we sometimes find it difficult to move on. Notice that the Israelites look back to their time in Egypt, while the people of Jesus' time look back to the manna in the desert, yet none of them ever had manna!

So how do we free ourselves from the past? Should we look to the future, instead? If we want to make the world, or just our community, a better place we can make plans. If those plans are ever going to work, we have to begin now. Jesus doesn't say "Remember how good that manna was." Or "Don't worry; your children will get it right." No, he keeps us focused on the present moment, telling us to believe in Him now, His Father gives us true bread today; Jesus is that bread of life.

Those words are just as true today. We may look fondly at Jesus' birth, his miracles, and his death on the cross, but if we don't let him be born again in us, if we don't trust him to do wonders today, and if we don't take up our crosses each day—we are missing the chance to experience Jesus in us and in the people we live and work with each day.

Decimoctavo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario No mires atrás

Ya es suficientemente malo en sí que los israelitas se quejen contra sus líderes, pero también se quejan ante Dios de que hubiera sido mejor quedarse como esclavos en Egipto. Después de todo lo que Dios hizo para traerlos a la libertad, ahora quieren volver a la esclavitud. Antes de juzgarlos muy fuertemente, podríamos preguntarnos si alguna vez nosotros hemos actuado de esa forma. Para nosotros, podría ser mirar hacia atrás a nuestra esclavitud al pecado.

Nunca pecaríamos si no hubiera algo atractivo en ello. Podríamos confesar el pecado y decir que nunca volveremos a hacerlo, pero a menudo no podemos resistir el recuerdo de nuestros pecados pasados. A medida que nos aferramos al pasado, las tentaciones vuelven y nos empujan a repetir las mismas ofensas. Aunque sabemos que es mejor dejar los pecados atrás, a veces nos resulta difícil seguir adelante. Nota que los israelitas recuerdan su tiempo en Egipto, mientras que la gente de la época de Jesús recuerda el maná en el desierto, ¡pero ninguno de ellos jamás comió maná!

Entonces, ¿cómo nos liberamos del pasado? ¿Deberíamos mirar hacia el futuro? Si queremos hacer del mundo, o simplemente de nuestra comunidad, un lugar mejor, podemos hacer planes. Si esos planes alguna vez van a funcionar, tenemos que comenzar ahora. Jesús no dice: "Recuerden lo bueno que era ese maná" o "No se preocupen; sus hijos lo van a entender". No, él nos mantiene enfocados en el momento presente, diciéndonos que creamos en Él ahora, Su Padre nos da el pan verdadero hoy; Jesús es ese pan de vida.

Esas palabras son igualmente ciertas hoy. Podemos mirar con cariño el nacimiento de Jesús, sus milagros y su muerte en la cruz, pero si no le permitimos nacer de nuevo en nosotros, si no confiamos en que él hará maravillas hoy, y si no cargamos nuestras cruces todos los días: estamos perdiendo la oportunidad de experimentar a Jesús dentro de nosotros y dentro de las personas con las que vivimos y trabajamos todos los días.
