A NOTE FROM SHIRLEY FORNEY

Thank you Fr. Delfin and all those involved in my "Retirement Party". The cake was beautiful and delicious, the awesome $1,000.00 check and decorations. It has been my honor to serve the parish and 4 priests in my years as church secretary/office manager. Thank you to all who helped me along my way. I will remain a parishioner of St. Elizabeth so will see you from time to time.

Love and prayers,

Shirley Forney

When we were in high school, we learned that the word sophomore came from Greek words meaning "wise fools." The idea was that the second year student thinks he knows it all now, but still has a lot to learn. The first two readings describe wisdom versus foolishness. In Proverbs, Wisdom is a woman who invites us to her banquet, telling us to "forsake foolishness." St. Paul invites us to give up our ignorance and to know the will of the Lord, by filling ourselves with the Spirit. Jesus says he himself is the way to understanding God's will; he gives himself as food and drink for eternal life. So how will we accept these invitations to partake of the Wisdom of God?

One way is to read the scriptures every day, even for only 20-30 minutes. Take time to think and pray about what you read. Don't do all the talking; let God have his chance to be heard. Read short passages and the footnotes—they can explain some of the obscure references. The gospels are especially good "food" because of all the examples Jesus gave in his sermons and parables.

Listen to the readings and homily at Mass. The Pastor may have some insights that make you think. Receive communion often to be fed with the living Bread. The Church has always taught that we are fed with both the word and the Eucharist.

An athlete grows in strength by eating well, but he also has to exercise to tone and strengthen his muscles. If we want to grow in God's wisdom, we have to exercise our faith. If you have a friend or relative who is a good example of faith, talk with that person about how you experience God or your lack of experiences. They may help you see God in ways that never occurred to you. You could offer to be a sponsor for someone in the RCIA, and help someone else's faith to grow. Your parish or diocese may also have on-line resources or discussions.

God never forces himself on anyone. To grow in his Wisdom, we have to accept it. Ask him for real food and you won't be disappointed. But be patient, God only gives what we are ready to receive.

Cuando estábamos en la secundaria, aprendimos que la palabra "sophomore" (estudiante de décimo grado) proviene del griego y significa "tontos sabios". La idea era que el estudiante de décimo grado cree que ya lo sabe todo, pero aún tiene mucho que aprender. Las dos primeras lecturas describen la sabiduría en contraste a la necedad. En el libro de Proverbios, la Sabiduría es una mujer que nos invita a su banquete y nos dice que "dejemos la necedad". San Pablo nos invita a abandonar la ignorancia y conocer la voluntad del Señor, llenándonos de su Espíritu. Jesús dice que él mismo es el camino para comprender la voluntad de Dios; se entrega a sí mismo como alimento y bebida para la vida eterna. Entonces, ¿cómo aceptaremos estas invitaciones a participar de la Sabiduría de Dios?

Una forma es leer las Escrituras todos los días, aunque sólo sea durante 20 a 30 minutos. Tómate el tiempo para pensar y orar sobre lo que lees. No seas el único que hable; deja que Dios tenga la oportunidad de ser escuchado también. Lee pasajes breves y las notas en la parte de abajo de la página que pueden explicar algunas de las referencias oscuras. Los evangelios son un "alimento" especialmente bueno debido a todos los ejemplos que Jesús dio en sus sermones y parábolas.

Escucha las lecturas y la homilía en la Misa. El sacerdote puede tener algunas ideas que te hagan pensar. Reciben la comunión frecuentemente para ser alimentados con el Pan vivo. La Iglesia siempre ha enseñado que nos alimentamos tanto con la palabra como con la Eucaristía.

Un deportista gana fuerza comiendo bien, pero también tiene que hacer ejercicio para tonificar y fortalecer sus músculos. Si queremos crecer en la sabiduría de Dios, tenemos que ejercitarnos en la fe. Si tienes un amigo o familiar que es un buen ejemplo de fe, habla con esa persona sobre cómo experimentas a Dios o tu falta de experiencias. Quizás te ayude a ver a Dios de maneras que nunca se te habían ocurrido. Podrías ofrecerte a patrocinar a alguien en el programa RICA y ayudar a que crezca la fe de otra persona. Tu parroquia o diócesis también puede tener recursos o charlas en línea.

Dios nunca se impone a nadie. Para crecer en su Sabiduría, tenemos que aceptarla. Pídele comida verdadera y no te decepcionará. Pero ten paciencia, Dios sólo da lo que estamos preparados a recibir.
